

Sheppard Mullin Represents Altais in Acquisition of Brown & Toland

12.17.2020

Sheppard Mullin represented Blue Shield of California, one of the largest health plans in California, and Altais and Altais Clinical Services (ACS) in ACS's acquisition of Brown & Toland Medical Group and its affiliated entities (Brown & Toland), a network of more than 2,700 physicians serving more than 350,000 patients in the San Francisco Bay Area. The transaction closed on November 24, 2020, following approval by the California Department of Managed Health Care. In connection with the transaction, Altais has committed to support the continued growth and expansion of Brown & Toland, including through the implementation of Altais' innovative, valued-based, outcomes-focused practice models and the next generation tools of Altais' affiliate Altais Health.

The Sheppard Mullin team was led by partners Eric Newsom and Eric Klein, senior associate Matthew Goldman and associate Jordan Grushkin. Additional team members included partners Peter Carson, Michael Chan, Steven Chananie, Frank Dworak, Gregg Fisch, David Garcia, Michael Koltonyuk, Bevin Newman, Michael Orlando, Jennifer Redmond, Greg Schick, Michael Weisshar, and Amanda Zablocki; special counsel Kristine Truong; and associates Katherine Bai, Adam Barton, John Crisp, Melissa Gertler, Susan Ingargiola, Robert Kay, Samuel O'Brien, and Arthur Yu.

Click here to read Altais's press release.

Attorneys

Adam Barton

Peter Carson

Michael Chan

Steven J. Chananie

John G. Crisp

Frank W. Dworak

Gregg A. Fisch

David R. Garcia

Matthew J. Goldman

Jordan E. Grushkin

Robert A. Kay

Eric A. Klein

Michael Koltonyuk

Bevin M.B. Newman

Eric A. Newsom

Michael D. Orlando

Jennifer G. Redmond

Gregory C. Schick

Melissa R. Shender

Kristine T. Truong

Michael H. Weissbar

Amanda Zablocki

Practice Areas

Corporate

Healthcare

Mergers and Acquisitions

Industries

Healthcare