

Sheppard Mullin Advises Arlington Capital Partners in Agreement to Acquire Triumph's Red Oak, Texas Operations

02.22.2021

Sheppard Mullin is representing Arlington, VA-based private equity firm Arlington Capital Partners in its agreement to acquire Triumph Group, Inc.'s (NYSE: TGI) Red Oak, Texas operations. The sale includes the Red Oak facility, together with its thermoplastic engineering capabilities. Arlington Capital Partners will combine the Red Oak business with the composites facilities it is separately acquiring from Triumph pursuant to a previously announced agreement. The terms of the deal were not disclosed.

The Sheppard Mullin deal team is led by partners Luca Salvi and Frank Bacelli, with assistance from associates Jeff Bowling, Diandra Molina and Felicia Xu. Invaluable subject matter assistance was provided by partners Keith Gercken, Justin Hepworth, Claudia Hinsch, Fatema Merchant, Jim Ritter, Keith Szeliga, Olivier Theard and Carlo Van den Bosch; special counsel Rob Gorzelany, Sean Kirby and Lee Weiss; and associates Mike Baranovic, Sarah Blitz, John Crisp, Elfin Noce, Jarred Ramo and Shilpa Ray.
