

Sheppard Mullin Represents Tribe Capital In SPAC IPO

03.30.2021

Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP is representing Tribe Capital, a San Francisco-based venture capital firm focused on using product and data science to engineer N-of-1 companies and investment, in connection with a pending special purpose acquisition company (SPAC) initial public offering. Star NFL wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. is a strategic advisor to the SPAC. The SPAC's IPO is expected to close in the second quarter of 2021. This is Tribe Capital's second SPAC IPO. Sheppard Mullin was co-counsel for Tribe Capital's first SPAC IPO, underwritten by Cantor Fitzgerald & Co., which generated gross proceeds of $276 million and closed on March 9, 2021.

The Sheppard Mullin team included Jason Schendel and associate Justin Anslow.

Attorneys

Jason R. Schendel

Practice Areas

Corporate

Emerging Company & Venture Capital