

Sheppard Mullin Represents FoxWayne Enterprises Acquisition Corp. on Proposed deSPAC Transaction

09.20.2022

Sheppard Mullin is advising FoxWayne Enterprises Acquisition Corp., a special purpose acquisition company (SPAC), in connection with its recently announced proposed business combination transaction with Clover, Inc., a mobile live streaming and dating platform providing social connection and community to millions of young adult singles across the globe.

The Sheppard Mullin deal team is led by partners Richard Friedman and John Hempill, special counsel Sean Reid and associates Nazia Khan, Hannah Zelcer and Ashley Misir. Partner Niya Tang advised on tax-related matters.

Click here to read the press release.

Attorneys

Richard A. Friedman

John R. Hempill

Nazia J. Khan

Sean Reid

Niya Tang

Hannah Zelcer

Practice Areas

Capital Markets

Corporate

Entertainment, Technology and Advertising