

Ballot Measures Construction Attys Should Know About

Law360

11.08.2018

San Francisco partner Erinn Contreras comments on two affordable housing initiatives that were recently passed in California. Contreras says the initiatives will benefit the construction industry and that, "A company new to the game may find that taking the state's money can cause their project to qualify, to some extent, as a public works project, subjecting it to various requirements such as prevailing wage."

Attorneys

Erinn M. Contreras

Practice Areas

Real Estate Development

Real Estate, Energy, Land Use & Environmental

Industries

Construction