

The #MeToo Movement as an Effective Opportunity for Effective Mentorship

San Diego Lawyer

November/December 2019 issue

In an article for the San Diego County Bar Association's member magazine, San Diego Lawyer, partner Whitney Hodges and GrahamHollis attorney Hali Anderson examine why the #MeToo movement should not be viewed as a reason to avoid women or mentorships, but as an opportunity to reexamine assumptions and help guide employees in creating feedback-rich mentoring relationships.
