

Commercial Real Estate Loan Transactions Involving Multiple Lenders

Part I - Syndications in Today's Market

New York Law Journal

04.06.2023

In a two-part series for The New York Law Journal, Sheppard Mullin Real Estate partner Richard Fries and special counsel Darby Brown describe several significant features of and distinctions between the “syndicated” and “participated” real estate loan that are not commonly known or understood.

The first installment is a primer on the acquisition and sale of a syndication interest in a commercial real estate loan.

Click here to read Part I. (a subscription may be required)

Attorneys

Darby K. Brown

Practice Areas

Real Estate Acquisitions and Dispositions

Real Estate Finance

Real Estate, Energy, Land Use & Environmental