Partner Doug Swill was interviewed in the Law360 article, “Sheppard Mullin Adds Partner from Faegre Drinker in Chicago” about why he joined Sheppard Mullin and his healthcare industry practice. Swill’s practice includes complex transactions including mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and deals involving private equity for not-for-profit and for-profit healthcare organizations. “This is a really exciting opportunity for me personally and professionally,” he told Law360, noting that the firm’s 230-person healthcare industry team is the kind of strong industry team needed to undertake strategic transactions for healthcare systems.
