Drew is a tireless litigator and sage counselor whose “all-in” approach to problem solving provides exceptional value to his clients.

Drew has extensive experience in a number of areas of business litigation, with a particular focus on representing lenders. He has worked with clients ranging from large public companies to small start-ups.

Drew represents clients in all aspects of the creditor-debtor relationship, including documentation of loan transactions, debt restructuring, litigation to enforce creditors’ rights, and bankruptcy. His practice also includes resolving disputes relating to Articles 3, 4 and 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code.

Drew has extensive experience prosecuting lenders’ suits to collect loans and enforce loan agreements including applications seeking appointment of receivers, attachments, claim and delivery actions, real property foreclosures, and enforcement of guaranty contracts. He also regularly defends financial institutions against lender liability claims. He has obtained numerous jury verdicts as both first and second chair trial counsel and has successfully resolved hundreds of cases through dispositive motion or a favorable settlement.
