Charlie excels in guiding clients through a broad spectrum of tax matters.

Charlie brings in-house experience working as a tax advisor for a Fortune 500 global energy company based in Virginia. He has assisted in analyzing tax implications for commercial transactions, including stock sales, asset sales, post-IPO secondary offerings, debt vs. equity analyses and tax credit strategies for various projects. He has also developed and implemented international tax planning strategies, ensuring tax efficiency compliance across multiple jurisdictions.

Charlie began his career working in Boston as an M&A tax professional at a “Big Four” accounting firm, focusing on transaction tax services for private equity clients, including tax due diligence and deal structuring.
