Direct: 816.691.2609

Office: Kansas City

Elizabeth brings an analytical mindset, practical judgement, and clear communications skills to her business litigation practice. She is committed to helping clients resolve disputes efficiently while keeping their business goals in focus.

She developed her skills as a Stinson summer associate, where she assisted with a range of business litigation matters. This experience gave her exposure to different stages of litigation and strengthened her ability to analyze issues and support clients effectively.

Elizabeth also gained legal experience as a Rule 715 Intern in Kansas, where she represented clients in civil matters such as probate, wills, and advance directives, as well as in criminal matters including expungements, diversion agreements, and protection from abuse cases.

Elizabeth is fluent in Kiswahili.
