Ethan provides tailored solutions and trusted guidance to ensure successful outcomes throughout complex transactions, structuring and development.

Ethan provides strategic counsel to closely-held businesses, private equity/venture capital funds, investment advisers, family offices, high-net-worth individuals and public companies, guiding them through all aspects of mergers and acquisitions (M&A), debt and equity financing, investments, restructurings and general corporate governance matters. He also serves as outside counsel to clients.

Additionally, he has significant experience advising clients on entity formation, capital raising, Securities Exchange Act reporting, joint ventures and Hart-Scott-Rodino filings. Ethan's experience also extends to private equity funds and their portfolio companies, serving as trusted counsel for domestic and cross-border acquisitions and divestitures. He also advises on succession planning and divestitures arising from owner disputes.

Ethan leveraged his broad transactional experience to serve as general counsel for a Securities and Exchange Commission-registered investment adviser focused on international investments. He oversaw fund formation, including co-mingled and single investor funds, managed accounts and co-
