Direct: 314.345.7063

Office: St. Louis

Jacob brings his federal court experience to assist clients in achieving their desired litigation outcomes.

Jacob assists clients with complex business litigation cases. Prior to joining the firm, Jacob gained valuable legal experience as a law clerk for the Honorable Sarah E. Pitlyk of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri. During his clerkship, Jacob both acquired a thorough knowledge of the practice and procedure of federal litigation and honed his legal research and writing abilities by reviewing, drafting, and editing memoranda and orders in pending cases. Before clerking, he served as an Assistant Attorney General in the Special Litigation Division of the Missouri Attorney General's Office.
