Direct: 314.345.7084

Office: St. Louis

John helps privately-held and family businesses navigate the challenges of the business life cycle. He approaches each matter with a business mindset, always considering the impact on the business as a whole.

During law school, John worked as a legal extern for the In-House Counsel's Office of a supermarket company where he worked in the litigation, benefits and labor and employment departments. He also gained valuable legal experience working as a summer associate at two St. Louis law firms.
