Office: Los Angeles

Clients value Joe's pragmatic approach to commercial litigation and transactional matters.

Joe's practice includes advising on business litigation matters involving real estate, fund governance and breach of partnership agreements, with experience litigating in federal court, as well as state court jurisdictions in Delaware, California and Montana. He has supported unlawful detainer actions and lease disputes for commercial landlords, and he regularly contributes to cross-office teams handling multi-jurisdictional matters. Joe also advises clients on transactional matters involving investment funds, real estate acquisitions, and corporate M&A, including reviewing and drafting fund documents, leases, purchase agreements and diligence materials.

Joe brings experience working with investment funds, commercial landlords and corporate entities. During law school, he served as a law clerk with the Los Angeles County Public Defender's Office.

Joe is fluent in Spanish.
