Karlee's unique perspective as a Certified Public Accountant makes her a trusted advisor to businesses of all sizes and individuals alike.

As a skilled corporate finance attorney, Karlee leverages her legal acumen and extensive knowledge of financial accounting and reporting to offer businesses of all sizes innovative solutions and strategic advice. Her diverse experience includes assisting with every aspect of mergers & acquisitions, from due diligence to negotiations, documentation, SEC compliance and other critical phases of a transaction.

Karlee's background in corporate and closely held business law, coupled with her in-depth knowledge of state and federal tax law, makes her adept at forming and structuring entities and transactions to accomplish her clients' goals while limiting state and federal income taxes, estate and gift taxes, employment taxes and sales taxes.

Karlee also provides guidance to individual clients in the areas of estate planning, trust and estate administration, and tax issues. She is a trusted advisor who understands her clients' goals of asset protection and preservation and can help them navigate the practical realities involved in reaching those goals.
