Loren delivers excellent client service through communication, candid advice and institutional knowledge.

Loren specializes in defending complex individual consumer and class action claims relating to the mortgage banking industry, including claims brought under the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, Truth in Lending Act, Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (including California's Rosenthal FDCPA), the California Homeowners Bill of Rights, and various unfair competition/UDAP laws, as well as claims involving traditional real property disputes, fraud and other torts. He also regularly represents banks and auto finance companies in consumer finance litigation brought under the Uniform Commercial Code, Electronic Fund Transfer Act, Fair Credit Reporting Act, and other consumer protection statutes.

Loren is a regular contributor to the MBA and California MBA, and he has authored multiple "Mortgage Servicing Compliance 101" courses for the mortgage banking industry. He enjoys counseling clients on regulatory issues including how to implement appropriate policies and procedures to minimize risk.
