Office: Los Angeles

Rob helps businesses navigate complex disputes and protect their interests in high-stakes litigation.

He represents companies across industries in business and commercial litigation; handling matters from contract disputes, real estate litigation, and financial services litigation. Rob brings extensive experience managing cases from initial strategy through resolution, providing clients with practical, results-oriented guidance that aligns with their business objectives.

Rob works closely with clients to assess risks, develop litigation strategies, and pursue favorable outcomes, whether through negotiation, alternative dispute resolution, or trial. His clients value his ability to simplify complex legal issues and provide actionable advice that protects both their operations and reputations.
