Direct: 316.268.7958

Office: Wichita

Sloan helps clients navigate business disputes with precision, strategic focus and a steady command of the litigation process.

Sloan brings substantial trial experience to her business litigation practice, including service as both a prosecutor and defense counsel in the U.S. Air Force. She has led courtroom strategy, managed litigation teams, and advised senior military leaders on high-stakes legal matters. That experience continues to shape her direct, disciplined approach to problem-solving.

Sloan is known for her strategic mindset and calm under pressure. Whether preparing for trial, managing sensitive internal matters, or advising on risk, she brings sharp judgment and practical insight to every client engagement.
