

Effective Crisis Management: Legal and Communications Strategies

Firm Events

07.16.2025 | 4 - 6 p.m.

Stinson LLP

1201 Walnut Street

Ste. 2900

Kansas City, MO 64106

When a crisis arises, clients turn to their lawyers not only for legal strategy but also to advise on communication plans and messaging. Experienced attorneys can guide clients with tested strategies and techniques for communicating with a variety of audiences and stakeholders, including company management, employees and the public.

When does an organization's problem necessitate crisis communications? How are communications impacted when working with a government client or when public monies are involved? When should firm counsel consider utilizing a professional communications expert?

Join us for an informative presentation in our Kansas City office, where you'll hear from our panel of attorneys and communications experts on the art and science of crisis communications, including in the public sector.

Registration & Networking: 3:30 - 4 p.m.

Program: 4 - 5 p.m.

Reception: 5 - 6 p.m.

CLE credit is pending in KS and MO.
