

Privacy Preparedness - Getting Ready for 2023

Webinar

07.28.2022 | Noon - 1:15 pm

With the growing body of state privacy laws, important updates coming in 2023, and anticipation around possible federal legislation, Stinson invites you to join us on Thursday, July 28 for a comprehensive program focused on the current state of data privacy regulation. In this informative session, attorneys David Axtell, Steve Cosentino \(CIPP\) and Abby Flores will discuss:

- Practical aspects of implementing company-wide data privacy and security practices
- Important 2023 updates and new laws coming in California, Colorado, Connecticut, Utah and Virginia
- Data Protection Agreements for customers and vendors
- Tips for negotiating data privacy and security clauses and risk allocation in customer and vendor contracts
- Update on CCPA Enforcement Actions
- Proposed federal privacy legislation and its potential impact
- Implementing the new GDPR SCC's and conducting Transfer Impact Assessments

A brief Q&A session will occur at the end of the program. We hope you can join us for this practical guidance session to help prepare your company for these new privacy laws.
