

5280 Magazine Includes Deborah Bayles on List of Denver's Top Attorneys

Press Release

01.13.2025

Stinson LLP Partner Deborah Bayles is recognized in the banking category on 5280 Magazine's Denver's Top Lawyers of 2025 list. She has been named to this list for four consecutive years.

Bayles' inclusion reflects her dedication to providing exceptional and trusted counsel to clients. This recognition further highlights her skills and commitment to advising clients on the full range of financial, real estate and business transactions. It also underscores her ability to combine practical business experience with deep legal knowledge.

Bayles advises lenders on a variety of secured loan and lease transactions, including those related to ESOPs and bank holding companies. She also guides business clients through entity formation, acquisitions and succession planning. Her extensive experience in real estate finance and general business operations allows her to effectively assist clients through all stages of a real estate project. Bayles also serves as Stinson's Denver office managing partner.
