

Andrew Scavotto Selected as Mentor Honoree by Missouri Lawyers Weekly

Press Release

10.29.2020

St. Louis Partner Andrew Scavotto was recently selected as a mentor honoree in this year's Missouri Lawyers Weekly Up and Coming Attorney awards. He is recognized for playing an important role in the development of those just starting out in the legal profession.

Andrew's nominator described him as a generous mentor who is always available for honest feedback and support, saying "I would not be where I am today without his mentorship."

In his practice, Andrew represents financial institutions and other businesses in complex disputes, including class action lawsuits involving the Missouri Merchandising Practices Act and other consumer protection statutes. He has defended multiple state and nationwide class actions, involving numerous regulated industries. Also, Andrew investigates and resolves a variety of complex disputes, including lawsuits involving business and personal torts.

CONTACT

Andrew J. Scavotto