

Bankruptcy & Creditors' Rights Partner Joins Stinson in Minneapolis

Press Release

10.10.2022

Stinson LLP welcomes Partner Christopher \(C.J.\) Harayda to the firm's Minneapolis office. Harayda has joined the firm's Bankruptcy & Creditors' Rights Practice Division.

Harayda's practice centers on bankruptcy, restructuring, distressed transactions, and commercial and financial litigation. He is a skilled litigator and transactional advisor, making him uniquely equipped to handle a broad array of bankruptcy, insolvency and restructuring matters.

Harayda brings over a decade of experience representing creditors, lessors, creditor committees, debtors, franchisors, and other stakeholders in bankruptcy and insolvency proceedings across the country. His representation spans multiple industries, including banks and alternative lending, agribusiness, mining and minerals, equipment supply and leasing, franchising, manufacturing, energy, and retail. Harayda's experience also includes counseling clients regarding loan and debt transactions, rights and remedies enforcement, and corporate trust and indenture issues.

"I was drawn to Stinson because of their fantastic team of attorneys who I have had the pleasure of working with in various ways on many cases in the past," Harayda said. "It is exciting to join a practice on an upward trajectory with impressive and sophisticated cases, giving me the opportunity to continue providing excellent service and counsel to my clients, both new and old. I am thrilled to join the firm's Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights Practice Division, and to be a member of Stinson's collaborative culture."

Prior to joining Stinson, Harayda was a finance and restructuring partner in the Minneapolis office of a multinational law firm.
