

Bayles, Botts Recognized Among Denver's Top Attorneys in Banking

Press Release

02.03.2023

Stinson LLP Partners Deborah Bayles and Robert Botts Jr have been recognized on the "Denver's Top Lawyers 2023" list by 5280, Denver's Mile High Magazine. The list features the most skilled attorneys throughout the Rocky Mountain region and beyond. Bayles and Botts were selected in the banking category.

The ninth annual recognition list is based on peer-reviewed surveys sent to more than 17,000 attorneys from Denver's seven-county metro area actively registered with the Colorado Supreme Court's Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel. 5280 then reviewed, researched and conducted interviews to compile the list of more than 500 attorneys who were rated the highest amongst their peers. Attorneys are recognized in 50 different legal specialty areas based on input from the Colorado Bar Association, attorneys and area law firms.

Bayles, serves as Stinson's Denver office managing partner and advises clients on the full range of financial, real estate and business transactions, and Botts is a trusted business advisor to mining and energy companies, commercial lending and financial institutions and privately-held businesses.
