Partner Chuck Hatfield spoke at the 2021 Federalist Society Missouri State Conference on the panel, "A Cleaner Missouri? Redistricting: What We Can Expect." The four-person panel discussed timing issues, local community districting, committee members, federal civil rights issues, and partisan gerrymandering as a constitutional consideration for redistricting.

Chuck draws on 25 years' experience litigating and negotiating very high profile cases, primarily involving some sort of government action, to help offer clients a broad and insightful perspective on Missouri's government and judiciary. He has represented dozens of clients in Missouri's initiative petition process, writing proposed changes to Missouri law and litigating initiative petition and signature challenges, and frequently advises on election law. Chuck also leads Stinson's Coronavirus Task Force, where he provides guidance to clients nationwide on matters related to the pandemic.
