

Stinson Recognized as a Litigation Standout in BTI Litigation Outlook 2023

Press Release

01.27.2023

BTI Consulting Group has recognized Stinson LLP as a Litigation Standout in the BTI Litigation Outlook 2023, a ranking that serves as a source for top legal decision makers to identify firms best suited to meet their most pressing litigation needs. Stinson is one of 90 firms recognized as a Litigation Standout.

To identify the Litigation Standout law firms, BTI conducted over 350 in-depth interviews with leading legal decision makers, including chief legal and operating officers and businesses executives who hire and influence the selection and hiring of law firms, at organizations with $1 billion or more in revenue who spend the most on legal affairs.

BTI expects litigation spending to increase in 2023 as the demand for litigation is at record levels. BTI's research provides a guide to discover where to invest and target resources with precision, while also ranking firms leading the litigation market.

In addition to being a BTI Litigation Standout, Stinson is one of the most searched for law firms of 2022, according to BTI's latest research of Google Trends.
