Stinson LLP Managing Partner Allison Murdock is featured in a Law360 article, "Firm Leaders Share Their Priorities For DC Offices in 2024," providing insight on where the firm is looking to expand in the new year, with a particular focus on the firm's DC office.

In 2023, the firm added over 60 attorneys across 13 office locations, with 34 attorneys joining the firm's DC office.

"Growth is still going to be a very major focus in 2024 as we look to continue to grow across all of our current offices," Murdock said. She also said the firm still has its sights set on expanding into California.

In addition, Murdock details the firm's efforts to build out the practices adjacent to its corporate practice groups, which includes adding attorneys experienced in finance, securities, and mergers and acquisitions work.

As Stinson's managing partner, Murdock holds ultimate responsibility for all aspects of the firm's operations and performance, including development and implementation of the firm's strategic initiatives. Her focus is on leading and growing a client-focused and community-engaged firm. Murdock is also a member of Stinson's board of directors and executive committee.
