Monday, June 13, 2022 | 12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Stinson LLP Partners Ashley Anderson and Erin Marino are presenting “Commercial Leasing – Sometimes Less is Actually Less” to the Dallas Bar Association’s Real Property Law Section June 13.

Anderson and Marino will share high level negotiation strategies from a commercial tenant perspective and practical tips that companies can use when negotiating a commercial lease with minimal leverage.

Anderson’s practice encompasses a variety of real estate transactions, including the buying and selling of office buildings, retail centers, warehouses, industrial facilities, raw land and hotels. She has extensive experience representing domestic and foreign purchasers, sellers, lenders and investors in complex real estate transactions throughout Texas and nationwide, and regularly represents landlords and tenants in all stages of commercial lease negotiations.

Marino’s practice focuses on complex commercial real estate transactions with an emphasis on real estate development, acquisitions, dispositions, leasing and financing. She represents developers, owners, landlords, tenants and lenders on real estate matters concerning various commercial real estate asset classes, including multi-family, mixed-used, unimproved land, hotel, office and medical properties, and regularly advises clients on real estate joint venture investments.
