

Barry Haith Named to Inaugural Construction Law POWER List

Press Release

12.18.2023

Stinson LLP Partner Barry Haith is recognized on the inaugural Missouri Lawyers Media POWER List featuring the top construction law attorneys in the state.

Haith is one of 30 attorneys to be recognized by the publication. He was selected for his significant transactional, trial, appellate, mediation and arbitration experience involving complex construction matters, as well as his service as outside general counsel to several clients in the construction and design industry.

The POWER List is a series feature from Missouri Lawyers Media that examines practitioners who lead and influence parts of Missouri's legal community. For the categories, the publication's editorial team interviews respected attorneys and leaders around the state, reviews outcomes of significant cases and state records, and consults the archives of Missouri Lawyers Weekly to compile the lists of what they believe to be the most powerful people in each part of Missouri's legal community.

Haith's transactional and litigation practice focuses on commercial and corporate work, real estate, construction, fiduciary, probate and trust, and fraud litigation. He works with individuals and businesses at multiple levels in business planning, risk management and problem solving, and serves as outside general counsel for many of his clients. Haith works with clients at a transactional level on complex contract drafting, real estate and development projects, complex deal negotiations, insurance coverage and recovery matters, and lien and bond claims.
