

Centurions Apex Class of 2025 Includes Stinson's Matt Moderson

Press Release

08.02.2023

Stinson LLP is pleased to announce that Partner Matt Moderson has been selected by the Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce as a member of its Centurions Leadership Program Apex Class of 2025.

Moderson is one of 43 Apex Class of 2025 members. He was selected for his proven leadership, commitment to service and dedication to the Kansas City metropolitan area.

"I'm thankful for the opportunity to represent the firm as a Centurion and excited to embark on a journey that will allow me to grow as a leader," Moderson said. "I'm looking forward to the work that lies ahead and learning how I can play a part in ensuring our city and communities can reach their full potential."

Centurions is a two-year leadership development program preparing emerging leaders for their role in shaping the future of Kansas City. The program offers opportunities to become more civically engaged and provides a framework for greater awareness of community issues and resources.

Moderson is an experienced litigator whose practice focuses on complex financial, commercial, and real estate disputes. He has a national practice and has litigated in courts and arbitrations across the country.

Moderson is a life-long resident of Kansas City. For many years, he served on the Board of Directors of Newhouse Domestic Violence Shelter in Kansas City, Missouri, and continues to be a supporter of the shelter. In 2022, Moderson participated in the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Visionary of the Year campaign.
