

Chatham Named to AZ Big Media's '2025 Most Influential Women in Arizona Business' List

Press Release

08.04.2025

Stinson LLP Partner Elizabeth Chatham has been named a "Most Influential Woman in Arizona Business" by AZ Big Media. Chatham is among 34 impactful women recognized for shaping the future of Arizona business through their vision, expertise and leadership.

Chatham is a nationally recognized immigration attorney who advises Fortune 500 companies, fast-growing businesses and educational institutions on complex U.S. immigration law and compliance. Grounded in a commitment to client solutions, she provides tailored corporate immigration programs with temporary and permanent immigration options, as well as immigration compliance programs, including I-9 audits and training for HR personnel. Her strategic counsel is designed to assist rigorous audits, immigration investigations, and worksite raids.

Chatham's influence extends beyond boardrooms. She serves on the South Asian Bar Association of North America Foundation Board of Trustees and is a well-respected voice in the legal and business communities. She was recognized as "Lawyer of the Year" in immigration law by Best Lawyers in America in 2023. In 2025, she was recognized as a "Most Influential Minority Business Leader" by AZ Business.

The "Most Influential Women in Arizona Business" award honors exceptional leaders who are driving change and setting new standards across industries. View the full list of honorees here.

CONTACT

Elizabeth S. Chatham

RELATED CAPABILITIES

Esports, Sports Technology & Wagering

Chatham Named to AZ Big Media's '2025 Most Influential Women in Arizona Business' List

Immigration

Labor, Employment & Benefits

STINSON

STINSON LLP / STINSON.COM