

Crisafulli Selected to Ingram's Twenty in Their 20s

Press Release

11.02.2023

Stinson attorney Ashley Crisafulli was selected to Ingram's Twenty in Their 20s Class of 2023. This award recognizes the achievements and promise of Kansas City's young entrepreneurs and those who demonstrate entrepreneurial qualities in their professional roles.

Crisafulli focuses her practice on complex litigation matters, including state and nationwide class actions, consumer protection actions, environmental torts, product liability actions and commercial litigation. She has been the lead associate representing clients against state and nationwide class action claims brought under numerous state consumer protection laws across the country.

Earlier this year, Crisafulli graduated from the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association Bar Leadership Academy, a special program designed to support emerging leaders of the legal profession in Kansas City. The seven-month program allows up-and-coming attorneys to learn from current and former legal and community leaders who are paving a path for the next generations of attorneys to excel in the profession and the greater Kansas City community.

In addition to her practice, Crisafulli serves on the firm's Pro Bono Committee where she assists on matters involving public policy and community improvement. Since 2018, she has served as a lead for Missouri and Kansas with the firm's non-partisan election protection initiative. Crisafulli has also played a pivotal role in supporting the Midwest Innocence Project, recently supporting a comprehensive four-day post-conviction relief hearing on behalf of a client serving a life sentence for a crime for which he has always maintained he did not commit. Last year, Crisafulli was awarded the firm's Pro Bono Impact Award, an honor given to just one attorney each year who has demonstrated significant commitment to pro bono endeavors addressing public policy or community betterment.
