

Jessica Knox Makes Debut on Minnesota Lawyer Construction and Real Estate POWER List

Press Release

03.24.2025

Stinson LLP Partner Jessica Knox is recognized on the Minnesota Lawyer POWER 30 list featuring the top construction and real estate attorneys in the state.

Knox's selection highlights her work assisting clients in navigating complex construction and real estate disputes, leveraging her transactional background and litigation experience to provide strategic and effective solutions. It also recognizes her skill in advocating for clients across various industries, including financial institutions, municipalities and private entities, through comprehensive legal strategies to address a range of issues.

Knox is a former transactional attorney experienced in commercial real estate transactions, lease negotiations and corporate formation. She represents contractors, developers, insurers, property owners and financial institutions in litigation and dispute resolution regarding construction, real estate, medical benefits/ERISA, premises liability, personal injury and property tax matters. Her work also includes managing contract negotiations, zoning disputes, tax appeals and various other high-stakes litigation.
