Stinson LLP Of Counsel Jenifer McIntosh, CIPP, is featured in a recent Law360 article, "Stinson Brings On Ferguson Braswell Cyber Pro In Dallas," highlighting what drew her to the firm and why it's the right fit for her data privacy and cybersecurity practice.

"Stinson offers a very open, supportive and collaborative environment, particularly as it relates to my practice," McIntosh said.

McIntosh is one of the firm's three Certified Information Privacy Professionals. She provides advice on privacy and data security issues related to technology-driven transactions and helping businesses protect their digital assets. McIntosh says "data is the backbone our global economy. Everyone needs to better understand the risks associated with its exploitation."

McIntosh has over 20 years of experience applying privacy, cybersecurity, intellectual property, internet and consumer protection laws to business activities. She also frequently handles commercial litigation cases, including complex contract and licensing disputes, patent litigation, business torts and regulatory investigations defense.
