

Michelle Fox Selected to FDCC Ladder Down Program

Press Release

02.10.2022

Stinson LLP attorney Michelle Fox has been accepted to the 2022 Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel (FDCC) Ladder Down program. Fox was selected because of her unique talents, strengths and commitment to growth within the legal profession.

Comprised of women lawyers from a diverse range of practice areas and experience levels, Ladder Down is a year-long program that provides training and career development through a combination of legal rainmakers, corporate counsel, judicial and law firm leaders. The goal of the program is to empower women lawyers through leadership, business development and mentorship.

Fox joins 23 other women in this year's inaugural nationwide FDCC Ladder Down class.

Fox supports and counsels business leaders on legal and regulatory matters related to financial services litigation and mitigation, consumer marketing communications, dispute negotiations, internal investigations, and resolving daily operational issues and risks within financial service entities. She has extensive experience as in-house counsel, as a private practitioner and as a Missouri Assistant Attorney General.
