

Minnesota Lawyer Names Noteboom a Top Litigator for Fifth Year

Press Release

10.09.2025

Stinson LLP Partner Todd Noteboom has been recognized on Minnesota Lawyer's 2025 "POWER List: Business Litigation," marking his fifth consecutive appearance among Minnesota's leading litigators.

This year's edition features 32 attorneys whose work has significantly influenced the state's business litigation landscape. Noteboom's ongoing recognition highlights his track record of successfully defending major U.S. corporations in complex, high-exposure cases across the country and his respected leadership within the legal community.

Noteboom focuses his practice on defending clients against class actions, multidistrict litigation, and other aggregated exposures, with particular depth in the financial services and insurance industries. He also represents clients in matters throughout the country brought by state attorneys general and other governmental bodies.

In addition to his legal practice, Noteboom remains active in the Twin Cities community through his service on the boards of the Guthrie Theater, the Children's Theatre Company, The Blake School and the Minnesota Business Partnership.
