

Missouri Lawyers Media Selects Three from Stinson to its POWER 100 List

Press Release

12.12.2024

Stinson LLP Partners Kirk Doan, Chuck Hatfield and Brad Sandler are recognized on the Missouri Lawyers Media POWER List featuring the top 100 attorneys in the state.

The attorneys' selection to the POWER 100 List honors their significant contributions to the legal profession and their respective fields. The recognition also highlights Stinson's commitment to providing exceptional client service and its attorneys' dedication to understanding clients' industries, businesses and goals.

Doan's selection recognizes his wide-ranging experience as a trusted advisor representing the business side of the health care industry in key legal areas, including practice acquisitions, hospital contracting and construction, general business operations and regulatory compliance. His representation extends to various health care professionals, including medical practice businesses, physicians and surgeons, dentists and pharmacists.

Hatfield's selection underscores his extensive experience litigating and negotiating high-profile cases primarily involving government action and relations and his significant influence in shaping how proposed laws and constitutional amendments are presented to the public. He has over 25 years of experience defending complex high-stakes litigation and has handled more than 20 major cases before the Missouri Supreme Court. Hatfield also represents clients in Missouri's initiative process and regularly appears before trial and appellate courts at both state and federal levels.

Sandler's selection recognizes his significant experience helping businesses, universities and health care institutions recruit and retain highly-qualified professionals and his success guiding researchers, scientists, physicians, teachers, business executives, engineers and information technology professionals through the immigration process, including all aspects of business immigration. His experience with Conrad State 30,

J-1 visa and national interest waiver programs, and matters involving EB-1 petitions for outstanding professors and researchers, has made him a sought-after immigration attorney. Clients rely on his knowledge and counsel for both operational guidance and advice on proposed regulatory changes.

The attorneys were featured in their respective practice area's POWER List earlier in the year: Doan in health care law, Hatfield in appellate law, and Sandler in the inaugural immigration law POWER List.
