

Redd and Simpson Named to Tax Law and Estate Planning "POWER List"

Press Release

09.15.2025

Stinson LLP Partners Clary Redd and Jay Simpson have been named to the Missouri Lawyers Media 2025 "POWER List" for tax law and estate planning. Published annually, the list highlights a select group of attorneys whose influence, experience and impact are shaping Missouri's legal community. Redd and Simpson are two of 24 attorneys recognized in the tax law and estate planning edition.

Redd, included on the list for the second time, counsels individual and corporate fiduciaries of large, complex trusts and estates while representing clients in estate and trust-related litigation. Nationally recognized for developing and implementing unique solutions to complex problems, he is known for resolving intra-family disputes efficiently and sensitively while providing practical advice for current and future generations.

Simpson, recognized for the third year, is known for his ability to develop creative tax planning strategies that provide meaningful financial benefits to clients and for successfully navigating disputes with various taxing authorities. His practice focuses on resolving tax issues for all types of businesses, including acquisitions, dispositions, joint ventures, reorganizations and restructurings.
