

Sharma Selected to Leadership Minnesota Class of 2024

Press Release

09.20.2023

Stinson LLP Partner Aalok Sharma has been selected by the Minnesota Chamber of Commerce to be a member of its Leadership Minnesota class of 2024.

Leadership Minnesota is an exclusive six-month program that works to broaden its members' networks, their understanding of the statewide business landscape and the political climate that influences it. By establishing a network of Minnesota's business and community leaders, the program also provides opportunities for its members to become more effective leaders in their workplace.

"I am thrilled to be a part of this program and honored to be given this opportunity to learn more about Minnesota's diverse business community," Sharma remarked. "I look forward to connecting with the Minnesota business community over the next six months and playing a part in fueling our economy in a united and prosperous manner."

Sharma's practice focuses on managing protracted litigation in sports, construction, finance, health care, automotive, retail and manufacturing industries. Sharma counsels his clients on matters relating to the future of sports, including esports, sports technology, legalized sports wagering and integrity. He is active in his community and currently serves on the board of directors for the Minnesota Twins Baseball Club Community Fund. Sharma is also the former chair of the Sports Division of the American Bar Association's Forum on Entertainment and Sports and was named a leading sports lawyer of the next generation.
