

Stinson Adds Business Litigator C. Jeffrey Price to Dallas Office

Press Release

12.01.2025

Stinson LLP is pleased to welcome attorney Jeff Price to its Business Litigation Practice Division. Based in the firm's Dallas office, Price brings extensive experience representing clients in complex business and commercial disputes.

Price advises companies and individuals in matters involving fraud, breach of contract, professional liability, and insurance coverage. He is known for his strategic approach, thoughtful preparation, and commitment to helping clients navigate both the legal and practical considerations that shape business outcomes.

"I have known Jeff for years and his strategic mindset and experience in high-stakes commercial litigation make him a valuable addition to our Dallas office," said Paul Lackey, managing partner of Stinson's Dallas office. "Over the years, Jeff and I have worked together on all types of complex cases, and his work in both trial and appellate matters reflects his dedication to successful advocacy."

Prior to joining Stinson, Price worked as an appellate attorney for a non-profit where he represented our nation's disabled veterans before the U.S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims.

Price holds a J.D. from the University of Minnesota School of Law and a B.A. from Brigham Young University. He is admitted to practice law in Texas as well as before numerous federal courts, including the U.S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims as part of his pro bono practice.
