

Stinson Adds Commercial Litigation Associate to Minneapolis Office

Press Release

09.26.2023

Stinson LLP is pleased to welcome Jackson Kennedy to the firm as an associate in its Minneapolis office. Kennedy joins the firm's Energy, Environmental, Mining and Transportation Practice Division.

Kennedy focuses his commercial litigation practice on matters spanning a variety of industries, including energy, transportation, finance, technology and health care. He represents clients in a wide range of legal disputes involving defense against claims for negligence, breach of contract, antitrust violations, and other litigation and investigation matters.

Kennedy also has significant experience representing clients responding to Department of Justice and Securities and Exchange Commission subpoenas and in conducting internal investigations. He also represents pro bono clients in criminal justice matters and in cases involving police misconduct.

Prior to joining Stinson, Kennedy practiced litigation at an international law firm.

CONTACT

Jackson Kennedy

RELATED CAPABILITIES

Business Litigation

Energy

Environmental & Natural Resources

Transportation

White Collar Criminal Defense & Special Investigations