

Stinson Adds Veteran Litigator Bill Meyer to its Kansas City Bench

Press Release

12.30.2024

Stinson LLP is pleased to welcome William H. Meyer to its Kansas City office. Meyer joins as of counsel in the firm's Business Litigation Practice Division.

Meyer is a veteran litigator with a diverse background handling complex cases in federal and state courts. He has successfully represented clients in a range of matters, including business disputes, surety and commercial appraisal defense, employment litigation, lender liability, consumer protection, real estate litigation, and matters related to the Jones Act. Meyer's practice also extends to product liability, medical malpractice, personal injury and debt collection. His clients include property owners, developers, title insurers, financial institutions and major corporations, among others.

"I joined Stinson because of its national reach, legal expertise and personalized approach to client service," Meyer said. "The firm's commitment to building strong client relationships truly sets it apart, and I'm excited to be a member of such a dedicated team."

Earlier in his career, Meyer maintained a criminal law practice as a member of the U.S. Navy Judge Advocate General's Corps. His diverse experience across a broad range of legal areas equips him with a unique perspective and approach to providing strategic counsel and advocating for clients.

Meyer earned his J.D. from the University of Notre Dame and a B.A. and B.S. from Rockhurst University.

CONTACT

William H. Meyer

Stinson Adds Veteran Litigator Bill Meyer to its Kansas City Bench

RELATED CAPABILITIES

Business Litigation

Real Estate Litigation

STINSON

STINSON LLP \ STINSON.COM