

Stinson Attorneys Assist Manufacturing Client in Securing Permanent Injunction in Patent Litigation

Press Release

03.03.2022

Stinson attorneys represented J&M Industries, Inc in a successful patent litigation case against Raven Industries, Inc. J&M, a custom tarp and cover manufacturer, obtained a permanent injunction against Raven, and the company was ordered to pay nearly $737,000 in damages for previous infringing actions regarding J&M's patented CoverGuard® Internal Strapping System.

J&M Industries, Inc. is a privately held family-owned company based in Louisiana. J&M and its subsidiaries manufacture and distribute tarps and covers for various applications and industries.

Stinson's patent trial attorneys have extensive experience in every aspect of patent litigation. They represent a diverse group of clients, from start-up businesses to multinational companies, in cases ranging from complex multiparty, multi patent industrywide battles to smaller, less complex cases in which the issues and the proper business resolution can turn on one or two key factors.

Stinson attorneys involved in this matter include David Barnard, Bryce Langford and Lynn Preheim.
