

Stinson LLP Expands in California, Announces Los Angeles Office

Press Release

04.07.2025

Stinson LLP is pleased to announce its West Coast expansion with its first California office. The new Los Angeles office in Century City becomes the firm's 14th office and extends its national footprint. Joining Stinson in California are Corporate Partner Michael Wippler and Litigation Partner Jeffrey Huron.

"Continued strategic growth is a core goal for Stinson, and establishing a California office has been a priority for us for some time," said Allison Murdock, the firm's Managing Partner. "This move creates opportunities to better serve our existing clients with operations in California and enables us to more effectively compete for clients there."

Huron focuses his legal practice on complex business disputes and excels in high-stakes business and real estate litigation. Wippler provides business, real estate, and corporate counsel across multiple industries, including manufacturing, construction, automotive and energy.

"It is a privilege to have Mike and Jeff join us in establishing our firm's presence in California. They are excellent attorneys who share in our commitment to providing top client service as well as our excitement for further growth," Murdock said. "We hope this becomes a catalyst for future expansion in the Golden State."

The new Century City office, located at 1901 Avenue of the Stars, features three conference rooms and 18 window-wall offices.

"Jeff and I are both very excited about joining Stinson and helping open and grow its Los Angeles office," Wippler said. "Stinson's team has proven to be exceptionally collaborative and driven; our clients will benefit immensely from Stinson's depth of experience."
