

Stinson Recognized as a Top Firm on S&P Global Market Intelligence Bank M&A Rankings

Press Release

02.15.2024

Stinson LLP is recognized as one of the top legal counsels for banks and thrifts on the 2023 S&P Global Market Intelligence Bank and thrift legal adviser rankings.

Stinson ranks #3 on the list featuring rankings by number of deals. The firm is also ranked on the list featuring rankings by total deal value.

For over a decade, Stinson has been ranked as a top 10 legal counsel for whole bank or bank branch deals based on the number of transactions completed. The firm is also consistently ranked as a top U.S. legal counsel for bank mergers and acquisitions and bank branch sales. The firm has represented buyers and sellers in over 50 bank mergers and acquisitions (M&A) in recent years.

Stinson's Banking & Financial Services Practice Division works with financial institutions of all sizes across the country, from small community banks to larger national banks, as well as industrial loan and thrift companies and government entities. The firm's Bank M&A and Capital Markets practice group, a subset of the Banking & Financial Services Practice Division, is devoted to serving financial institutions and acting as strategic partners through every phase of the business cycle.
