

Stinson Recognized with "2021 Volunteer of the Year" Award by Wichita's Mark Arts

Press Release

04.01.2022

Stinson LLP has been recognized as a "2021 Volunteer of the Year" by Mark Arts, a Wichita, Kansas arts center. The award recognizes an individual and a corporation that has made significant contributions to Mark Arts and their mission.

"Stinson has been an integral partner for Mark Arts as the organization has grown in programming, operations, and complexity," said Mark Arts CEO Katy Dorrah. "Stinson's guidance was essential throughout the pandemic and positioned Mark Arts to resume operations as safely and quickly as possible. Stinson remains a steadfast partner, advising Mark Arts on a variety of human resources, contracts and business topics."

In recent years, Stinson Partners David Bengtson, Pat Edwards, Alisa Ehrlich, and Stephanie Scheck have provided valuable guidance to help Mark Arts protect and invest in their School of Creativity, exhibitions, facility management and event rental business. Bengtson is a former Mark Arts Board President, completing his Board service at the end of March 2022, and Scheck will be joining the Mark Arts Board starting April 2022.
