

Stinson Recognized with the Wichita Business Journal's Diversity & Inclusion Award

Press Release

12.05.2024

Stinson LLP has been named an honoree of the Wichita Business Journal's 2024 Diversity and Inclusion Awards, recognizing the firm's dedication to fostering a diverse and equitable workplace as well as its strides in promoting inclusivity within the firm and the broader Wichita community.

"We are honored to receive this award recognizing the diverse backgrounds and perspectives of our Wichita team," Stinson's Chief Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Officer Ann Thomas said. "We are grateful for our firm's authentic and continued commitment to a more diverse, equitable and inclusive legal profession as well as in the communities we serve. This diversity is essential to upholding our core values, including fostering a more inclusive world and delivering exceptional legal services to our clients."

The Diversity and Inclusion Awards highlight those who are actively championing a more inclusive business environment and making a demonstrable impact in the Wichita community. Stinson is one of 20 companies and organizations honored with the award, joining a total of 279 companies and individuals recognized since the awards' inception 10 years ago.

Stinson's Wichita office, led by Office Managing Partner Stephanie Scheck, is home to nearly 30 attorneys and staff and represents Wichita's largest companies. The firm's Wichita attorneys have extensive knowledge and experience across multiple practices and industries, including business, commercial and real estate litigation, oil and gas, energy and environmental law, labor and employment, immigration, corporate finance, tax, trusts and estates, product liability, and aviation and aerospace.

Sign in to the Wichita Business Journal to learn more.