

Stinson's Arnone, Edwards Selected to 40 & Under List

Press Release

08.03.2023

Stinson LLP is pleased to announce that Partners Christina Arnone and Patrick Edwards are featured on the Benchmark Litigation 40 & Under List – Midwest.

This is the sixth year in a row the attorneys have been recognized on the 40 & Under List. Arnone is recognized in the Insurance practice area. Edwards is recognized in the Labor and Employment; Construction; Product Liability; and Commercial practice areas.

The 40 & Under List recognizes the achievements of those who are among the top talent in their respective litigation communities in the U.S. Honorees were identified by peers and clients as attorneys who have displayed the ability to consistently handle complex, high-stakes cases. Honorees must be of partner – or equivalent – status, in addition to being under 40 years old.

Arnone helps businesses manage risk by ensuring appropriate insurance coverage, advocating to maximize coverage in the event of an insured loss, and suing insurers when they refuse to provide coverage. She has more than a decade of experience representing a wide variety of businesses in complex business insurance disputes. She also assists businesses in negotiating insurance and indemnity provisions in commercial contracts and regularly advises businesses during policy placement and at renewal.

Edwards has extensive experience in lawsuits involving construction, products liability, employment, and oil and gas. He represents both landowners and companies, and has developed a strong practice representing companies in collection matters.
