

Three Denver Attorneys from Stinson Recognized by Super Lawyers in 2023 Top Lists

Press Release

03.03.2023

Super Lawyers® has named three partners from Stinson LLP's Denver office to the 2023 Colorado Super Lawyers and Rising Stars lists.

Denver Office Managing Partner Deborah Bayles is recognized as a 2023 Super Lawyer in the real estate practice area, a recognition Bayles has earned since 2011. Partner Andrew Gillespie is recognized as a 2023 Rising Star in the banking practice area and Partner Zane Gilmer is recognized as 2023 Rising Star in the business litigation practice area.

Bayles advises clients on the full range of financial, real estate and business transactions. Her practical business experience and extensive knowledge of real estate finance and general business operations are key to her ability to effectively counsel her real estate clients through all phases of a real estate project.

Gillespie focuses his financial services and real estate lending practice on helping banking, private equity, privately-held business and real estate investor clients reach their business goals across a wide range of industries. He leverages his business background to provide innovative, strategic and practical advice when counseling lenders and borrowers in secured and unsecured loans, and private equity firms, real estate developers and investors in a variety of complex transactions.

Gilmer is an experienced litigator with a background in securities, banking and compliance. He represents clients from a variety of industries in class actions, investment disputes, and other complex litigation matters. Gilmer also provides compliance advice to financial services firms, marijuana-related businesses and other highly regulated industries.
